About the National Commission for Women

The National Commission for Women (NCW) is the statutory body of the Government of India, generally concerned with advising the government on all policy matters affecting women.

It was established on 31st January 1992 under the provisions of the Indian Constitution, as defined in the 1990 National Commission for Women Act.

The National Commission for Women provides financial support for conducting Seminars/Conferences / Workshops / Webinars to Colleges, Universities, State Commissions for Women, Non- governmental organizations, etc., with the objective of getting an insight into the relevant subject and also throwing up recommendations for better implementation or even modification of the existing policies/ programmes / schemes/projects relating to welfare and empowerment of women. Such programmes also provide a forum for sharing knowledge, information and experience of participants and resource persons on the subject. Such experience sharing could be helpful in better dissemination of the required information and also lead to better execution of schemes, etc. at the ground level.

About the Programme

The goal of Career Counseling is not only help the home makers to take decisions by imparting knowledge and skills. The objective of the programme is to impart career guidance to acquaint individuals with their occupational choices. The programme will make them aware of work demand and improve the potential of the home makers. Therefore, the home makers need not stress anymore about the short term and long term goals. This will lead to the empowerment of the home makers.
